Murrysville Presbyterian Preschool

Over the next month and a half, I will be completing assessments with your children. I will have conferences to discuss their growth and development on April 21st and 22nd. Look for a sign-up sheet towards the end of March to choose a time.

The Carnegie Science Center is bringing a traveling field trip to our classroom March 24th! They cover two different topics with the kids by doing experiments and fun activities. It is a blast!
