Three Year Olds Newsletter- 3 Day Program

A New Year begins... We've enjoyed the last few months with your little ones. It's been fun to discover their personalities as we become more comfortable with each other. I'm proud of everything they've accomplished and have enjoyed seeing their smiling faces during the activities. Their midyear assessments will be completed soon. Those will be coming home late January/February so that you can see how your child is progressing. Please let me know if you have any questions at all.
